OUR ANCESTRAL ORIGIN

Amid the ravings of national leaders in Germany--marked by persecution of indescribable fury, the people of those regions were craving for a land of deliverance.

The welcome news of a haven of exemption was wafted back from these shores and hither they sought every means to escape the dire calamity which confronted them there.

So in conjunction with many others these refugees did escape further persecution by seeking an abiding place thru the Phila gateway of transportation.

It was in the latter part of the 17th century that these colonists wandered into the wilderness--down thru York, Hanover on to Littlestown. As yet they seem not to have reached their final destination for they crossed Maryland over the unbeaten rough and rugged course towards Frederick on to Taneytown.

There however their footsteps met the wilderness path leading from Balto westward where their weary and forlorn life turned towards the east and Balto, ultimately landing in what is the Uniontown district of Carroll Co., then Frederick, the region of Tyrone and Baust Church.

For their bravery and daring these knights of the forest and wilderness of that day knew not to falter where all honor must be shown and all homage paid them as they in their desperation laid the firm foundation of ideal citizenship to be nurtured and fostered thru the ensuing years.

These were Germans as evidenced by the life of subsequent generations in the language they used since no other existed among them at that early period.

Among this valiant group was one

PHILIP BA BIL ON

whose name is said to have been of French or Swiss origin somewhat like Poplin meaning a beautiful flower which causes the pronunciation to be as has been given it.

In due time he married Barbara SMITH to whom three children were born:

PHILIP in 1776 ANDREW in 1779 and PETER in 1781

The records of Frederick Co., Maryland give much of validity to the foregoing data which was the only source of record and preservation.

It may be of special interest to note that several towns in the United States bear similar names such as Bablen--lin, W. Va. and Babylon, N. Y.

Now as to the

supposedly is located near Uniontown, Md bordering on the highway to Westminster.

1 1/2 ACRES FARM--owned by Maurice C. DUTTARA a great great grandson of the original.

According to plot of Conveyance dated the 24th day of March, 1775 claimed by

PHILIP (2d) ANDREW and PETER BABYLON
the heirs of PHILIP (1st) BABYLON deceased containing 100 3-4 acres.

In due time ANDREW and PETER BABYLON deeded the same to PHILIP (2d) B. recorded the 10th day of April 1809 in Liber
W. B. 34 folio 533-536 Frederick County, Maryland,

Subsequent to the foregoing JOHN BABYLON the executor of PHILIP (2d) BABYLON deceased deeded the same tract to Wm
Babylon recorded the 24th day of Oct. 1843 land records Carroll
Co. in Liber J. L. 2 folio 512.

On April 2, 1890 recorded 6-13-1890 the same was deeded by Wm Babylon to his grandson Maurice C. DUTTARA who now owns it.
He is shown in picture with Peters stone--rear of book.

BAUST CHURCH, Tyrone, Carroll Co Md
and over towards Uniontown region where early pioneer settlement

BABYLON ANCESTRY

Localized.

Evidence points strongly to some kind of church there back as far as 1750.

The earliest grave stone that appears on the burying ground is 1763.

No early church records available tho the corner stone on church records the date of 1790.

The records show that the land where present church stands was donated by one Valentine BAUST and his wife Marie Jan. 10, 1794.

Andrew BABYLON was an elder there when it was incorporated.

The present stained glass windows now in were put there by the BABYLONS--the one on the left side to the memory of Barbara Martin BABYLON by her daughter, Mrs. Amos Duttera, mother of the brothers.

Calvin Babylon --Ellicott Co, Md

Samuel R ✓ 7114 Meadow Ave Baited

Special credit is due Maurice C DUTTERA for copying a complete list of all marriage licenses issued to any and all BABYLONS at Westminister, Md largely the center of the Clan's life from the beginning, as well as much miscellaneous work in connection with this history.

Unfortunately we have not been able to get trace of all as some few remain unaccounted for. In order that all might be tabulated notice was put in the papers east and west to report to us but none did so.

Accordingly about all has been done to give due recognition to all that is possible. This then seems to complete the object of collecting the BABYLON data for future information.

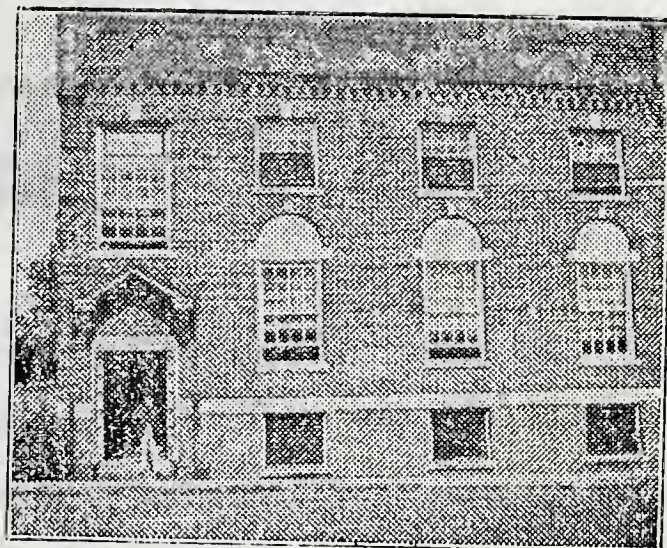

The charts and diagrams of the entire clan were shown from place to place which gave a most comprehensive and at the same time a clear insight of its constituency.

It is due to add in closing that some few did cooperate with much gratification while others were decidedly indifferent.

Efforts were made to give permanency to it all and stimulate the preservation of the family history but a marked indifference prevailed so as to preclude any satisfactory organization.

Anyhow the libraries in the territory where the Clan does exist will be furnished with permanent copies free and accessible for examination. This edition is subject to revisal as conditions may be imperative.

Please report errors and additions.

BABYLON Clan Travelog

In view of the fact that the charts and diagrams covering the clan have not reached the people for their own benefit, it is most pertinent that some facts be set forth at this juncture.

As already shown in the beginning, of this book our ancestors after lingering for some time in Carroll Co, Md began migrating west to Miami Co, Ohio near Dayton. There they established themselves likewise by industry and a degree of fruglity worthy of pioneers. This evidence is to be noted today on every hand thru the various regions.

So they continued to expand to a most commanding status with a large constituency. But alas some felt the draw of the west Ho and landed in western Mo nigh Ks city where a very creditable tho not large number hold forth today representing a very desirable type of citizenship.

Of course mention dare not be overlooked of a few most excellent ones who meandered down into Oklahoma also pp into S Dakota and several other sections in childhood period that they even failed to recognize their lineal connection.

The Clan's growth has not been as rapid in fact slow in responding to their ancestors inhe itance. Yet its type of leadership has challenged the best in their respective communities.

However, WE MUST BESTIR OURSELVES TO A GREATER RESPONSIVENESS IN COMMUNITY LIFE. Especially is ~~this~~ true if we expect to make the progress essential to occupy th place our ancestors passed on to succeeding generations.
